 SPECIFIC- Biographical Data on Ernst WORM
REF : MGK-W-6489; MGL-A-4565

1. The request in MGK-W-6489 for additional data on ACKERMANN is being met by C. Subject is the other man named in para. 3 of this reference.

2. The following account is nearly worthless. The original Lebenslauf passed through the hands of 39/1, 39, and 30 a, probably becoming more dirtied at each step. At present, however, it represents the best that we can do. When circumstances permit, we'll dig for added data which has more bearing on your request. Please note that name traces were already requested in MGL-A-4565.

3. Ernst WORM (true name) was born on 25 April 1907 in Obergründ, near Wernsdorf (CSR). After completion of basic and commercial schooling he took a commercial job in the CSR and other north-eastern countries. He was thus employed until 1945. Because of an old malady affecting his legs, he did not serve with either the Czech or the German army. He was held prisoner by the Russians from May to October 1945 and was released on the latter date because of illness. Since that time he has been engaged in commercial activity in Germany. Subject was politically inactive. He became a nominal member of the Sudeten German Party in 1934. In 1938 he was automatically registered as an applicant for NSDAP membership. In 1941, upon applying for permission to travel abroad, he was assigned to unpaid work in the economics division of the SD.
